

HOSTS WITH THE MOSTS

Did you know our deep facilitator pool includes veteran actors and world-class improvisers with decades of experience leading, hosting, and performing for corporate events? Now you do! Use our flexible, funny, and thoughtful hosts for your next event and plug us in any way you need, including:

KICKING OFF YOUR EVENT

Start with a burst of energy and excitement to set your employees up for success at their next summit, conference, convention or quarterly meeting!

MODERATING A PANEL

No more snoozefest panels of boring dudes murmuring into microphones about synergy and throughput. Create a fun, engaging conversation by letting our hosts make your panelists look like rock stars.

HOSTING/CREATING CUSTOM GAME SHOWS

Want to game-ify your keynote or bring volunteers on stage? Our hosts can help co-create fun on-stage game shows, trivia contests, and group challenges to keep your attendees delighted and on the edge of their seats!

CELEBRATING YOUR TEAM/COMPANY

Have a year-end awards show or want to celebrate your company's recent big wins? Our host can bring the fun, levity, and energy needed to make sure the kudos are flowing and everyone is excited about what's next!

PLAYING TOUR GUIDE FOR YOUR EVENT

Need a sense of cohesiveness to a day of panels and keynotes? Our hosts can create smooth transitions, artfully tie together all your disparate event elements, and keep things moving, light, and breezy by playing the part of Cruise Director.

CREATING COMEDIC KEYNOTES

Want to break up the dry stuff with some comedy? Our hosts can also masquerade as Fake Speakers, creating hilarious, fictional keynotes around current industry topics (or headaches!) that will make the audience laugh and help release tension.
